Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 10-12, and 15-27 remain pending in the present application.

The Examiner required a substitute specification because the nature of Applicant's amendment filed November 15, 1994, makes it difficult to arrange the papers of the application for printing and copying. Accordingly, attached herewith is a substitute specification, including claims, in proper idiomatic English and in compliance with 37 CFR 1.52 (a and b). The attached substitute specification contain minor editorial changes, but it contains no new matter.
